Company Leave and Attendance Policy - Staff

This policy aims to ensure consistency, transparency, and accountability across the organization while providing clarity on leave entitlements and attendance expectations. Employees are encouraged to adhere to the guidelines outlined above to maintain workplace discipline and efficiency.

1. Leave Policy

1.1 Types of Leave:

- Contingency Leave (CL): 14 days per year.
- Privilege Leave (PL): 10 days per year.

1.2 Leave Utilization:

- Minimum leave that can be availed: 0.5 day.
- CL can be used from DOJ as per pro rata basis
- PL can be utilized only after completion of probation period as per pro rata basis.
- No two types of leaves can be merged. If leaves are merged, it may lead to salary discrepancies for the period covered by the merged leaves.
- CL will be lapsed in the month of December
- PL will not be carried forward; however, it will be encashed in the following year by the month of May.
- PL will be encashed based on the basic salary of the employee.

1.3 Maternity and Paternity Leave:

- Maternity Leave: As per the Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act, 2017, female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave for the first two children and 12 weeks for subsequent children.
- Paternity Leave: Male employees are entitled to 15 days of paid paternity leave, which can be availed within six months from the date of childbirth. This leave can be taken maximum 2 times in six months.

1.4 Long Leave Process:

- If any employee plans to take a long leave of 5 or more consecutive days, proper task allocation must be ensured before proceeding on leave. The employee should delegate tasks to team members or the reporting manager to ensure smooth workflow.
- For long leave of 5 or more days, employee need to take approval from their respective manager at least 1 month prior. Failure in abiding might lead to discrepancy in salary.

1.5 Leave Application Process:

- All leaves must be applied through the HRMS application (Tempus) within 2 days of resuming work after returning from leave.
- Leaves not applied and approved by the 24th of the month will be considered in the subsequent attendance cycle (attendance cycle: 26th to 25th of the month).
- Managers are required to approve or reject leave requests and miss punches submitted by their team members on Tempus. Failure to take timely action may result in salary discrepancies for the employees.

1.6 Short Leave:

- Employees are entitled to a short leave of up to 2 hours once a month.
- Any time exceeding the allotted short leave will lead to deductions from leave balance or salary, as applicable.

2. Work from Home (WFH)

2.1 Applicability:

- Work from home is applicable to employees stationed at Ranoli or Chhani offices who are responsible for non-operational or administrative tasks.
- 3 days work from home in a month is allowed for any grade of staff.
- This policy does not apply to employees working at site locations.

2.2 Approval Process:

- WFH must be pre-approved by the reporting manager, with HR marked in CC on the email request.

2.3 Reporting Requirements:

- Task Reports must be submitted to the reporting manager and HR.
- Managers must review and approve the task reports by the following day. Failure to comply will result in automatic rejection of WFH, which will then be converted into leave or Leave Without Pay (LWP) based on leave balance.

2.4 Prior Approval for Leave:

- Except for sick leave, all leave requests must be submitted at least 2 days in advance and approved by the respective manager.

3. Working Hours

3.1 Standard Working Hours:

- Working hours: 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM.
- Grace period: 15 minutes (up to 9:15 AM).

3.2 Late Coming Waiver:

- Late arrivals up to 9:30 AM are allowed 3 times per month.
- Exceeding the allowed late arrivals will result in half-day salary deduction.

3.3 Miss Punch Policy:

- Miss punches are allowed up to 2 times per month.
- Exceeding this limit will result in half-day leave/salary deduction.

3.4 Attendance Requirements:

- Punch-in is mandatory for all employees, either through biometric devices or mobile punch systems.

4. Separation Leave:

- Any leaves consumed during the notice period shall be considered as Leave Without Pay (LWP)
- The pending leaves (PL) shall be adjusted in the FNF of the employee.
- CL shall be lapsed and will not be adjusted in FNF.
- The notice period cannot be offset or adjusted against any pending leave balance. It is mandatory for employees to serve the notice period in full, in accordance with the company policy.
