HRM/F/02/07	Work From Home Policy	Approved By: Management Effective Date : 24.08.2020

Employees work from home or telecommute when they complete their work at place located outside of our company's premises.

OVERVIEW

PURPOSE/OBJECTIVE

1. To regularize attendance while an employee is working from home
2. Work from Home(WFH) arrangement is to make sure that working from home is beneficial to our employees and SSIL
3. To ensure through appropriate monitoring, that "occasional" work from home does not inadvertently become a regular feature of the employees' working arrangements

SCOPE

This policy is applicable for all Staff employees of SSIL

POLICY

RULE AND APPLICABILITY

1. At SSIL , we do recognize that occasionally our employees may need to work from home

2. Reasons for WFH that could demand telecommuting include but are not limited to:
    i. Parenting
    ii. Bad weather
    iii. Emergencies
    iv. Medical reasons
    v. Work-life balance
    vi. Overlong commute
    vii. Other reasons for working from home depend on employees and managers' judgment.

3. However, it is not possible to allow all employees at all level(s) of SSIL to work from home The reasons for that are: -

i. The requirement of jobs may not be suitable for such arrangement
ii. People are more productive, collaborative and innovative when they work in team(s) in the office environment
iii. Employees may get hit with bad internet connection, slower VPN connection that makes application slow down
iv. It's hard for manager to see and resolve problems of employees working from home
v. It takes lot more time to organize and monitor effective virtual teamwork
vi. It requires a much greater effort to ensure that the communication has passed as expected since misunderstanding is more likely to occur
vii. Speed and quality are often sacrificed when employee work from home

4. An employee is eligible for only One day WFH in a month.

PROCEDURE

1. Before proceeding on planned WFH, the employee must apply for WFH in advance through mail or the Prescribed form duly approved by the Reporting Manager /HoD and the same needs to be submitted to HR
2. The employee should make this request to their Reporting Manager/HoD, two days before actual WFH
3. If the WFH arrangement spans for more than a week then Reporting Manager and team members should meet to discuss project details and set specific goals, schedules and timelines against the task(s) to be performed during WFH
4. Employees who need to work from home for unforeseen reasons (e.g. illness or temporary difficulty in commute) or the reasons listed above, they should file their WFH request as soon as possible, so managers can consider and approve it
5. Serious consideration will be given to all WFH requests
6. SSIL reserves right to withdraw their employee's approval for WFH if they believe its use is being abused or for any other reasonable needs of SSIL, to carry out its business

WORKING ARRANGEMENT

1. Workload, Reporting and Monitoring:
   i. All arrangements for monitoring, supervision, setting workloads, etc., will be agreed with the employee's Reporting Manager in line with normal procedures
   ii. For planned WFH, the precise project or task must be agreed beforehand

2. Equipment:
   i. Employees who are required to work from home would not be provided with any equipment unless already assigned to them

ii. If any equipment {exception case(s) based on Business need} is provided by SSIL for the purpose of working at home, will be inspected and maintained by the SSIL, The employee is required keep it secure and to use it in accordance with operating instructions, and the IT policy
iii. Employee must ensure that any such equipment additionally provided is returned at the end of the arrangement in good condition
iv. If it is found that the equipment assigned to employee for working from home is in bad condition or is not in working condition then the cost of equipment should be procured from employee responsible.

3. Confidentiality and Access:
   i. Equipment and files should only be accessible to the employee and safeguarded from access by other members of the household and visitors.
4. Compliance:
   i. Failure to comply with any aspect of this policy or related policies such as IT policy during WFH may lead to a disciplinary action
